

Sierra Waldorf School is seeking a First Grade Teacher for the fall of 2019. A strong parent body, an inspired faculty, and a dedicated administration are searching for an enthusiastic educator to join our community. Our school rests in the Rawhide Valley, a rural community in the Sierra Nevada Foothills, near the towns of Sonora and Jamestown. Tuolumne County is a wilderness paradise with most of Yosemite National Park within its borders. Hiking, skiing, rock climbing, biking, and sightseeing opportunities abound.

Our school will be celebrating its 30th year. We have 180 students in parent tot, nursery, kindergarten, and grades 1-8. Our faculty is an extremely dedicated group of teachers, many of whom have graduated their own families from our school. We are committed to working out of anthroposophy and the indications of Rudolf Steiner, as well as working with consensus. Our programs include; Eurythmy, Puppetry, Gardening, Woodworking, Music and Spanish.

The ideal candidate will have experience as a class teacher, hold a certificate in Waldorf education with a bachelor's degree, and have a willingness to work collaboratively with faculty in partnership with school administrators. Excellent classroom management, effective communication, and professional striving are a priority.

If you are interested in applying, please send us your resume with a letter of interest to kpendleton@sierrawaldorf.com

We look forward to hearing from you!
