Dave Alsop is the Assistant Director of the Bay Area Center for Waldorf Teacher Training. In 1974, upon completion of the Waldorf Teacher Training program at Emerson College in England, he began his Waldorf career as a class teacher at the Sacramento Waldorf School. In 1990, Dave became the Chairman of AWSNA (the Association of Waldorf Schools of North America), and he served in that capacity for eleven years. From 2004 through 2008, he worked at the San Francisco Waldorf School, first as the Development Director, then as the Head of Administration. In addition to working on administrative duties, Dave currently teaches the Threefold Nature of Social Life and the Philosophy of Freedom. He and his wife Marianne have two grown children.
