This 4th annual Sacred Nights of Winter journal, with its theme of Connecting with Mother Nature, is a compilation of contemplative exercises and journaling prompts that, if worked with consistently through the 13 nights between December 24th and January 6th, will result in a personalized tool that guides you to effectively meet the challenges and opportunities of the coming year. Go to www.KimMarieCoaching.com/SacredNights for a full description of the journal and how to order it. Contact kim@KimMarieCoaching.com with any questions.

"When the light of the outer sun is faintest and its warmth feeblest, now is the time when the soul withdraws into the darkness but can find within itself the inner, spiritual Light."

~ Rudolf Steiner
