COVID-19 Precautions/Community Responsibility: Much detailed attention has been paid by the Acorn Hill community to modifying programs so that COVID-related guidelines and concerns can be effectively addressed. We are looking for candidates that understand our safety as a community is dependent on each and every one of us as an individual.

Due to the ongoing challenges of the COVID-19 pandemic, Acorn Hill Waldorf Kindergarten and Nursery in Silver Spring, Maryland is seeking to strengthen our ability and capacity to support children and families during this time. We have openings for dedicated Waldorf certified Early Childhood teachers, including those with Birth-to-Three training and interest.

Current Job Openings

Early Childhood Outdoor Lead Teacher

We are seeking an experienced Waldorf Early Childhood educator to teach in a mixed-age kindergarten class. The ideal candidate is WECAN certified and is able to offer a full outdoor program. Because of COVID-19 all classes are based outdoors, but each class has access to an indoor classroom as well. Our kindergartens have access to a full complement of nature experiences: woodland, forest, and garden.

We are looking for an organized, skillful communicator who can be a good colleague and work well with our community members. A strong understanding of child development and a capacity to provide parent support and healthy communication are essential. A bachelor's degree (or 120 hours of college credit) is required. An interest in Anthroposophy is valued.

Interested candidates should send a letter of interest and resume to Kate Gage, Faculty Chair, at info@acornhill.org.

Early Childhood Outdoor Assistant Teacher

We are seeking an early childhood assistant. Our ideal candidates have some Waldorf Early Childhood training and teaching experience, and possess a love and commitment to being outdoors with children. A capacity to provide parent support and healthy communication are essential. An interest in Anthroposophy is valued, and physical stamina is important.

Because of COVID-19 all classes are based outdoors, but each class has access to an indoor classroom as well. Our beautiful campus includes playgrounds, forest trails, and gardens.

Interested candidates should send a letter of interest and resume to Kate Gage, Faculty Chair, at info@acornhill.org.

Early Childhood Outdoor Substitute Teacher

We are looking for dynamic, creative, and dedicated early childhood substitute teachers to join our school.

Seeking substitute teachers for all of our early childhood programs for children 2.5–6 years old—nursery and kindergarten classes. Experience with Waldorf education is a plus. Different subbing opportunities for full day, half day, and aftercare, Monday through Friday. Experience working with children required.

Because of COVID-19 all classes are based outdoors, but each class has access to an indoor classroom as well.

Interested candidates should send a letter of interest and resume to Kate Gage, Faculty Chair, at info@acornhill.org.

For All Positions

A completed application will include: a letter of interest, resume, and three references. Please submit to info@acornhill.org for consideration.

All employees must meet Maryland State and Montgomery County licensing requirements. In addition, they need to pass a background check, including fingerprinting, and must possess the legal right to work in the United States.

Acorn Hill commits to making our school a place where families and employees of diverse backgrounds feel welcomed and expressly valued. Our school strives to bring children to an understanding and experience of the common humanity of all the world's people—transcending stereotypes, prejudices, and divisive barriers. We will undertake the work necessary to prepare our children and ourselves for the challenges and joys of life in a diverse society

We have positions for teachers and substitutes for the fall 2021.
