Applications are accepted year-round. Admission is open to all adults. Classes are capped as soon as they meet the maximum number of students. Applications received after the class is filled will go onto a waitlist, and applicants will only be admitted if space becomes available. Students under 21 years old will generally not be admitted, but the Program Director may make exceptions in individual cases.

The Bay Area Center for Waldorf Teacher Training admits students of any race, national and ethnic origin, and sexual orientation to all the rights, privileges, programs, and activities generally accorded or made available to students at the school. It does not discriminate on the basis of race, national and ethnic origin, or sexual orientation in administration of its educational policies, admissions policies, scholarship and loan programs, and athletic and other school-administered programs.
