

Berkeley Rose Waldorf School

First Grade Class Teacher for 26-27

ABOUT THE ROLE

Berkeley Rose is welcoming applications for a full-time first grade class teacher for the 2026/27 academic year. Successful candidates will enthusiastically engage students and work collaboratively with colleagues and the parent community to create an educational environment aligned with Waldorf pedagogy, our school mission and program goals. The ideal candidates will be certified Waldorf teachers, have experience working with children and be committed to collegial work and self-development. A bachelor's degree or equivalent experience is strongly preferred.

COMPENSATION & BENEFITS: Full time position. Benefits offered include health insurance (medical, vision, dental), tuition remission, mentoring and professional development opportunities.

Current class teacher salary is $67 - 71K annually.

TO APPLY FOR THIS POSITION: Please submit resume along with teaching credentials, cover letter and three references to hire@berkeleyrose.org.

OUR SCHOOL

An Urban School With Heart: Berkeley Rose Waldorf School is a vibrant, metropolitan school, located in a beautiful walkable neighborhood in Oakland, California. We are 3 blocks from an avenue known for its many shops and restaurants and with access to the greater San Francisco Bay Area and stunning nature in every direction. Our families and faculty are innovative and passionate about providing a holistic education for children.

Founded in 2009, our school serves approximately 150 students from Nursery programs through 8th Grade, along with parent-child classes and parent education events for the local community.

We welcome students, families, faculty, and staff of all races, ethnicities, countries of origin, cultural, religious, ideological and political affiliations, socio-economic backgrounds, gender identity, sexual orientation and any other articulation of human identity. We offer the gifts of Waldorf education to children growing up in a highly technologized culture sorely in need of a developmentally appropriate education that centers on what it means to be a human into the future. We are actively engaged in developing and advancing our work with Learning Support, Social Emotional Learning and DEI. The Berkeley Rose faculty strives to model a lifelong love of learning, gratitude and to support the individual journey of every child.
