

Hummingbirds' Collaborative School

Early Childhood Assistant Teachers/Early Childhood Lead and Assistant Aftercare Teachers
(positions needed in June)

Hummingbirds' Collaborative School is seeking experienced and enthusiastic early childhood teacher candidates for the 2022-23 school year. EC teachers are required to bring inspiration, beauty, warmth, heart-connection and joy to their teaching, singing, sensory integration circles as well as maintain a warm, clean, and organized classroom.

We are seeking like-minded colleagues who are passionate, bring joy into their excellence in teaching, and are committed to collegial collaboration.

Preferred requirements:

- Certificate of Completion in Waldorf Teaching/LifeWays Certificate
12 ECE units or enrolled
- AA/Bachelor's degree or equivalent
- Licensing Certificates required

Applicants should demonstrate:

- strong classroom management skills and a commitment to professionalism.
- positive communication skills with parents.
- an ability to work collaboratively with colleagues.
- bring a strong rhythm and EC curriculum throughout the daily, weekly routine
- the joy of early childhood festivals

Must pass Department of Justice (DOJ), Federal Bureau of Investigations (FBI) and Child Abuse Reference Check (CAIC) background clearance.

This position offers benefits such as tuition remission, mentoring, professional development, seven weeks of paid vacation (in alignment with the school calendar) and competitive salary.

Interested candidates should email their resume and cover letter to director@hummingbirdsschool.org.