

Hummingbirds' Collaborative School

Grades Class Teacher

Hummingbirds' Collaborative School is seeking experienced and enthusiastic grades teacher candidates for the 2022-23 school year. We are looking to fill our first grade class teacher position and our 2nd/3rd grade combined class teacher position. Both of these are smaller classes with many students who have attended Hummingbirds' since preschool. The Class Teacher will have the support of a part-time assistant teacher, reading specialist, and several subject teachers.

We are seeking like-minded colleagues who are passionate, bring joy into their excellence in teaching, and are committed to collegial collaboration.

Preferred requirements:

- Certificate of Completion in Waldorf Teaching
- Bachelor's degree
- Previous Waldorf class teaching experience

Applicants should demonstrate:

- strong classroom management skills and a commitment to professionalism.
- positive communication skills with parents.
- an ability to work collaboratively with colleagues.

Must pass Department of Justice (DOJ), Federal Bureau of Investigations (FBI) and Child Abuse Reference Check (CAIC) background clearance.

This position offers benefits such as tuition remission, mentoring, and financial support for professional development, seven weeks of paid vacation (in alignment with the school calendar) and competitive salary.

Interested candidates should email their resume and cover letter to director@hummingbirdsschool.org.
