Grades Class Teacher

Heartwood Charter School is seeking a qualified and motivated individual to be a grades class teacher for our upcoming 2021/22 school year. We seek teachers who are experienced, creative, flexible and committed to Waldorf education. Our dedicated faculty values strong and warm collegial relationships and are ready to be joined wholeheartedly in continuing to develop a unique and thriving Waldorf-based public charter school.

Qualifications:

- Waldorf Grades Teacher Certification
- Teaching Credential (or willing to receive certification)
- Love of and experience in the arts, for example, music, handwork, and painting

About us:

Heartwood Charter School is a Waldorf-based charter school. We are a growing K-8 program.

We are in our seventh year of operation at our beautiful Camp Bothin location and have existed as a public Waldorf program in the valley for the past 15 years. Our campus is nestled on the edge of West Marin in a small valley surrounded by 150 acres of wooded hills, trails, waterfalls and seasonal creeks. Our classrooms reside in historic buildings, a cozy red barn, and embracing yurts.

Our initiative is sustained by innovative pioneers and warm-hearted, dedicated parents and teachers. We, the members of this educational community, are courageous, enthusiastic, bold, kind and a bit wild at heart. We believe that education should be based in holistic child development and involve a living connection with both the arts and the natural world and that here should be no limits on access to education.
