

Live Oak Waldorf School First Grade Teacher, 2025-26 School Year

Live Oak Waldorf School is seeking a warm-hearted, creative teacher for our rising first-grade students beginning in the fall of 2025. Ideally, you would be shepherding a group of bright-eyed and open children as they continue their love of learning up through the elementary school grades. We, your future colleagues, are there to offer support in any way we can, and you will have your own mentor as well. Additionally, Live Oak Waldorf School has funding available for continued Professional Development.

The dedicated and experienced faculty members of Live Oak hold true to the principles of Waldorf education, and we deeply value the integral roles of mentoring support and the invested work of the College of Teachers.

Job requirements include a Bachelor's degree or higher, Waldorf Teacher Training or currently enrolled in Waldorf Teacher Training, prior teaching experience, commitment to continuing Professional Development, and a willingness to work collaboratively with colleagues, administration and parents.

Benefits Include:

- Priority enrollment for children of hired faculty
- Full tuition remission for children of faculty
- A school year calendar designed for sustainable teaching and learning
- Financial support for yearly annual renewal courses/Professional Development
- Living where you would vacation!

The compensation for this position is based on years of experience is and can range from $52,500-$66,300 per year.

If interested, please send a letter of interest (including a brief biography), and your resume to bwauters@liveoakwaldorf.org.