

Seeking Assistant and long term Substitute for the 2022-2023 year
Living Soil Ecclesiastical Ministries
Living Soil home school group
Santa Rosa, CA

Living Soil Ecclesiastical Ministries is seeking a long term position of Assistant Teacher for a combined 2nd/3rd grade class. This position as assistant will become substitute for a Lead Teacher who will be taking maternity leave in January. A two school-year commitment is highly preferred, however only applicants who can commit to the entire 2022-2023 year will be considered.

Founded in 2020, Living Soil is a Private Based Organization with 508c(1)a non-profit status located in a home setting in Santa Rosa, CA. Our Waldorf- trained teaching staff have a homeschool pod of combined 2nd/3rd grade that are committed to remaining together through the 8th grade as a traditional Waldorf class. Every member who joins the school feels an integral part of a large family, and it is our intention to remain intimate and home-based.

The ideal candidate has knowledge and experience working with Waldorf philosophies and in leading large groups of children, communicates clearly with students, staff and parents, and works creatively to find the many ways of meeting children as they journey through life. Additionally, the ideal candidate knows how their simple presence and conduct serves as a role model to the young souls they serve.

Classes run Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday from 9:00am-3:15pm.

Job Benefits:

- Position is salary based and dependent on experience.
- 100% tuition remission for any children matriculated in the school
- Your family becomes our family, invited to participate in all our year-round festivals and celebrations (Micahelmas, Winter Spiral, May Fair, etc.)
- Regular training and mentoring from Lead teacher (if needed), even during maternity leave

Job Description:

- Daily morning check-ins and weekly meetings with Lead Teacher
- Willingness to work with flexibility as challenges arise
- Flexibility with the curriculum to meet the needs of a combined grades class
- Build a strong relationship with students, colleagues and parents
- Ability to hold big-picture goals while working on day-to-day activities
- Participation and help producing annual festivals and grade-based celebrations

To apply, please send a letter of intention and resume to livingsoilem@proton.me