

PASADENA WALDORF SCHOOL

Part-time Eurythmy Teacher job description

We are seeking dynamic and engaging teachers who have a history of work in multiple class settings. Prior experience with Waldorf education is a plus. We actively encourage teachers from racial and cultural backgrounds not currently represented in private secondary education to consider this position. Please submit a letter of introduction, resume and the contact information for 3 professional references to esemin@pasadenawaldorf.org

Qualifications:

- Demonstrated excellence in eurythmy teaching (professional experience or exemplary practicum recommendations) This includes eurythmy training or the willingness to engage in this training after hire at one's own expense.
- A desire to work with students beyond academics to help them develop the capacities to know themselves and their place in the world.
- Bachelor of Arts or Bachelor of Science degree from an accredited four-year college or university.

General Statement of Duties:

- Teaching assigned classes and supporting other teachers to facilitate the whole school schedule. If qualified, may also teach other subjects.
- Supporting extracurricular activities: Examples include: advising students, playground and meal supervision, chaperoning field trips, or mentoring various clubs.
- Administrative responsibilities include school committee work, all school workshops, student reports, parent work, and duties like lunch coverage, opening/closing the school for the day, or subbing for an absent peer.
- Meeting attendance to include weekly meeting of the full Faculty/Staff and Grade School faculty/staff meetings.

Salary and benefits based upon contract hours, experience and other factors.
